If you only do one thing this month...

BOOK A CANVAS HOTEL

If spending time in the great outdoors is top of your summer to-do list, then check into one of the country's best glamping sites, where the tents are already up, there's hot running water and even, occasionally, four-poster beds. Tattershall Lakes Country Park (tattershall-lakes.com) in Lincolnshire has its very own outdoor cinema, with family-friendly screenings each Sunday over the summer holidays. Further south, we love the look of Caalm Camp (dorsetyurtcampsite.co.uk) in Shaftesbury, Dorset, for its hand-crafted yurts with private shower rooms, while The Pop-Up Hotel (thepopuphotel.com) reaches the Isle of Wight in August, with luxury tents, yurts and Airstreams at the English heritage site, Osborne House. As for the weather, that's out of our hands.
