

Charity night

AT THE POP-UP HOTEL

■ Lord and Lady Shaftesbury

The Pop-Up Hotel held a charity night at West Pennard to celebrate the beginning of the Glastonbury Festival 2013.

There was a dress code of Black Tie and Wellies, and guests enjoyed Earl Grey Martinis, served in vintage china tea cups, and a hog roast.

The evening was held in aid of The Willow Foundation, a national charity that provides special days for seriously ill 16- to 40-year-olds. An auction, overseen by Martin Roberts, from BBC's Homes Under the Hammer, raised £3,660 for the charity, with lots ranging from an alpaca wool jacket designed by Lucy Cox (highlighted as 'one to watch' by Dazed & Confused magazine) for £200, through to original Glastonbury 2013 framed pictures from Honeytree Publishing, which raised £690.

The event also gave everyone the chance to have a sneak preview of the hotel, including the new Tenthouse Suite - a stunning Mughal tent which comes complete with ensuite bathroom facilities, three fully furnished bedrooms and a furnished living and dining area.

The Pop-Up Hotel will be at various locations

■ Lucy Cox, knitwear designer, and Natalie Banfield

over the summer including Cowes Week and Osborne House this month. Visit www.thepopuphotel.com

Pictures by Latitude Photography

■ Poppy Midgley and Megan Thresher in The Pop-Up Hotel

■ TV presenter Martin Roberts and Mark Sorrill, MD of The Pop-Up Hotel

■ Caroline Shelver, Sally McCutcheon and Harriet Duke

■ Alice Whitley and Gemma Sear

■ Abbey Thresher and Steve and Jane Beswetherick